

The Clock Tower Fieldhouse, designed by Edwin H. Clark in English Gothic Style, was built in 1931, along with an adjacent refreshment stand.
Housed in that former stand, the Clock Tower Café now offers much more than refreshments. Enjoy!

In 1929, the city of Chicago began reclaiming land from Lake Michigan, for the creation of lakefront parks, beaches, harbors and golf. It took three years of trucking in millions of tons of soil, to fill the areas currently east of Lake Shore Drive. The intent was to build an 18-hole golf course to be called Waveland.

However, due to funding and cost overruns, only a nine-hole course opened.

Waveland GC opened in 1932, at cost of $2 million ($34M today!).
