

Introducing DOUG BREUER, PGA Harry L. Jones Staff Instructor

ABOUT DOUG

Doug's passion for teaching and coaching is contagious, and his deep knowledge of the game makes him a well-rounded instructor. His clear communication and positive style create a fun, relaxed learning environment.

Doug began his golf career in 1979 picking range balls and has never left the industry. A lifelong learner, he studied Professional Golf Management at Ferris State University and became a PGA member in 1998. Now a Quarter Century Member, Doug has over 30 years of teaching experience, working with everyone from beginners to Division 1 college players. He spent 16 years with Mike Hebron on Long Island, eventually becoming Head Golf Professional, then taught for Dana Rader in Charlotte until 2017. He remained with the Ballantyne Golf Academy until its 2020 closure and has since taught at Harry L Jones, Sr GC.

Doug takes a holistic approach to instruction, focusing on fundamentals and the common traits of short game and full swing. This speeds up improvement, and video feedback helps students understand the difference between what they 'feel' and what's 'real.'
