Payment Information

I understand this is a 1 year contract that will convert automatically to a monthly membership on the first anniversary of this agreement. I will pay the monthly charge for the membership type listed above during my first year, and thereafter the standard monthly charge until I give a 30 day advance written notice of my intent to terminate my membership in accordance with Spring Creek Golf Club rules and regulations.

Spring Creek Golf Club requires all members to provide current credit card information on file. Billing will occur on the last day of each month and will include all charges made that month and membership dues and fees for the following month. Bills will be emailed monthly. Payment can be made by check, cash, or credit card up until the 15th of the next month, as where the card on file will be automatically charged.

In the event the credit card is rejected, returned, or denied by the bank, the member will have 30 days to pay the current statement. After 30 days of the statement not being paid, the membership will be suspended until all fees from contract are paid and a current credit card is placed on file. If not paid in 90 days, Spring Creek Golf Club will then have the option of turning the account over to a collection agency. The member will be responsible for all expenses, including attorney fees and costs incurred collecting the debt.
